Dennis T. is looking into creating a database of RV repair centers and RV dealers. The listing will include both good and bad comments. The input would come from us, the members, on our recommendations to Dennis. Naturally, the information would be available to all of us - that's what it's for. If you have any comments on RV repair centers and/or dealers email Dennis (dlthrift@comcast.net) so he can enter them into his database.

Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 6:42.
