Still need a host for January, and March meetings.

Old Business: Please fill out the online campground form for 2 choices per rig. Need to turn in the forms at the November meeting to tally and decide which one will be available for the 2017 camping season.

Elections for 2017. Sid has a committee of Richard and Greg. The officers being voted on is for the President and Secretary. Bob C. is running again for President and then Paula is running for Secretary. Mary G. will be the available for Paula when she can't make a meeting. So, that leaves Sid as the Vice President, Shirley as Treasurer and Greg as the Wagonmaster.

Christmas Party: Joe has been able to obtain the Elks Lodge in Temple Hill, MD. Party will take place on Saturday, 3rd of December at 12:00 noon. There will not be an exchange of gifts as we will be using the money for a donation to a Food Bank. It was decided that food for the needy was more important than gifts for ourselves. We are looking at 2 different places in the locate community. One is the Immaculate Heart of Mary church or United Methodist Church. Both are in the Lexington Park, Maryland area. We also received a donation from a person that was playing pool at our meeting of $13.00. He was in that position one time in his life and felt the need to donation to our clause.

New Business: It was brought that the BCFB purchase pop up tents for using at campgrounds with no cover or building for meetings and pot luck meals. But it was quickly put down as who would be responsible to keep them.

No other New Business came to the table.

Pat and Jim paid their dues already.
